On the Gloucester Track.
GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, N. J., Dec. 13.—The usual Saturday afternoon crowd attended the races at Guttenburg to-day, despite the bitter cold weather.

A very attractive programme was arranged and a great day's racing was expected. The track had dried out considerably and was in fair condition to make many upsets to the talent, who have grown accustomed to tacking mud horses.

Nevertheless, they went to work on the first race and backed the Earl as though it was all over. He was a red-hot favorite, and carried handsomely.

Enola was installed second choice at the opening, but towards the close a great deal of money went on Ban Boi, forcing him down to second favorite's position, while Enola slightly receded.

The start was a good one for all but Enola, who was practically left. The favorite, however, and he was a magnificent finish, beating Cascade, won a short while the latter beat Judge Mitchell a neck. No day began with an upset.

Capulin was the real good thing in the second race. He opened at 7 to 5, and in less than five minutes the price was 1 to 2. Money was laid on him on every side.

Of the others, Forest King was thought to be the best, and the backing he received kept him at four.

Peril was backed heavily for the piece. The favorite was Forest King for the place, English, the ruler of Marty B. fell from his horse at the eighth mile and he was a shipwreck of a race.

My fellow, despite the lump of weight he was carrying, was a good thing in the race. He was thought to be a chance by a certain division of the talent, however, and he was well played.

The Gloucester race, went begging at long odds. The clutch players got there in great shape, as it was early, beating the favorite, now or never was this.
